One of the primary purposes of cookies is to provide a convenience feature to save you time. For example, if you personalize a web page, or navigate within a site, a cookie helps the site to recall your specific information on subsequent visits. Hence, this simplifies the process of delivering relevant content and eases site navigation by providing and saving your preferences and login information as well as providing personalized functionality. You have the ability to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies. If you reject cookies by changing your browser settings then be aware that this may disable some of the functionality on the Site.

When you use the Site, we may employ "clear GIFs" (a.k.a., web beacons) which are used to track the online usage patterns of our users anonymously (i.e., in a non-personally-identifiable manner). In addition, we may also use clear GIFs in HTML-based emails sent to our users to track which emails are opened by recipients.

We may also prepare and keep statistical records and other data about you and other users of the Site, but we do that in a way that does not identify you or any other user personally. We may hire third parties to help us collect and analyze such data, and we may share such statistical data with third parties.

USE OF INFORMATION PROVIDED OR COLLECTED ON THE SITE

In addition to the uses described immediately above, we may use information collected from you in order to help administer the Site, diagnose problems with the Site or our servers, analyze statistical use patterns and demographic data and to improve the Site to better serve our visitors. Your IP address is used to gather general demographic information and may in the future be used to help identify you. We use both your personally identifiable information and certain non-personally-identifiable information (such as anonymous user usage data, cookies, IP addresses, browser type, clickstream data, etc.) to improve the quality and design of the Site and to create new features, promotions, functionality, and services by storing, tracking, and analyzing user preferences and trends.

We do not use your email address or other personally identifiable information to send commercial or marketing messages without your consent or except as part of a specific program or feature for which you will have the ability to opt-in or opt-out. We may, however, use your email address without further consent for non-marketing or administrative purposes such as important site changes.

Except in the limited circumstances stated in this Privacy Policy, we do not sell, rent, license, trade or otherwise disclose the personal information of visitors to the Site to nonaffiliated third parties. We may disclose your information to service providers who assist us in operating the Site or in conducting our business. We may disclose information about you (including personally identifiable information and/or non-personally identifiable information) if and when we believe, in our sole discretion, it is necessary or advisable to: comply with any state and/or federal law, rule, court order, subpoena or search warrant; enforce our legal rights or the Terms of Use; protect our business, property and operations, or in connection with a sale, acquisition, merger or other business combination of our business with a third party; take precautions against liability, including to investigate and defend ourselves against any third-party claims or allegations; assist government enforcement agencies; protect the security or integrity of the Site; or, protect the rights, property, or personal safety of AAA Cooper, the Site, our users or others. We provide personally identifiable information and non-personally-identifiable information to our subsidiaries, affiliated companies, or other businesses or persons for the purpose of processing such information on our behalf. We require that these parties agree to process such information in compliance with our internal corporate privacy policy, and we use reasonable efforts to limit their use of such information and to use other appropriate confidentiality and security measures.
